

Good Distribution Practice (GDP) of Medicines and APIs For Human Use, Focused on Transport

Modality Online / e-Learning

Dates From 14th Oct 2022 to 21th Nov 2022

"Useful knowledge for you and your company", the program contemplates a complete vision of the GDPs, together with a special focus on Transport.

Objetives and participants

More information & registration

Participants have the opportunity to go through a detailed explanation and understand in depth all aspects related to the transport of drugs and active ingredients (APIs), and the requirements of laboratories, distribution warehouses, etc. Adjusted to the needs of the personnel of logistics operators, distribution entities, transport entities, carriers, laboratory personnel and their logistics, transport or warehouses by contract, distribution, etc.

Quality Management

Personel

Premises and Equipment

Documentation

Operations

Complaints/Returns

Outsourced Activities

Self-Inspections

Transportation

Customers Audit and Transport

Tutor

- Isabel Cartas: Pharmaceutical Bachelor, and Master in Pharmaceutical Industry, with a long career as Technical Director and Responsible Person in Drug Distribution Entities.

Dynamizer

- Javier Aseguinolaza: Chartered Engineer, Master in Industrial Environment Management, consultant with extensive knowledge and experience in Quality, Innovation, Organization, etc. Registered in the Engineering Council (UK).